Terms and Conditions for Proxy and Telephone Bidders

1. A prospective purchaser should complete and sign the registration form overleaf. In particular the prospective proxy purchaser should complete the form showing the maximum price which the prospective purchaser authorises the auctioneer to bid for a particular property.

The maximum price to which the auctioneer is authorised to bid must be an exact figure (accordingly wording such, as "£100 over the highest bid in the room" will not be acceptable). The auctioneer reserves the right not to bid on behalf of the prospective purchaser should there be any error or confusion in respect of these instructions or the accompanying deposit.

A separate form must be completed for each lot for which a prospective purchaser requires the auctioneer to bid.

The completed form or forms must be delivered to Paul Fosh Auctions, 87 Church Road, Newport NP19 7EH (for the attention of the auctioneer) by hand or by post so that it is received not less than 24 hours prior to the time of the commencement of the auction at which the particular property is to be sold. The commencement time of the auction is shown in the catalogue.

Any agreement to alter any proxy or telephone bidding form at any time prior to, or on the day of the auction, must be in writing.

2. The prospective proxy purchaser appoints the auctioneer as agent and authorises the auctioneer to bid for the relevant lot on behalf of the prospective purchaser in such manner as the auctioneer thinks fit in his absolute discretion.
3. The prospective purchaser shall be considered to have inspected the auction catalogue for the relevant lot and inspected the general and special conditions of sale and notices to prospective purchasers and also any addendum relating to the lot and to have full knowledge thereof and authorises the auctioneer or any duly authorised partner or employee of Paul Fosh Auctions as the prospective purchasers agent to sign the memorandum of contract incorporating all such matters at or after the auction.
4. Prospective proxy purchasers should send with this form a valid cheque or bankers draft drawn on a United Kingdom Branch of a bank representing 10% of the maximum price subject to a minimum of £2,000 to which the prospective purchaser wishes the auctioneer to bid. Where the particular lot is purchased below the maximum bid figure the balance of the deposit will be considered as an additional deposit towards the purchase price.
5. The prospective purchaser may in writing only at any time up to the commencement of the auction in which the particular lot is to be sold withdraw the auctioneer's authority to bid. It is the prospective purchaser's responsibility to ensure that the auctioneer personally receives such instructions and he should check to ensure such instructions have been received.

6. Unless the relevant lot is sold to the prospective purchaser, the amount of the prospective purchasers bid will not be disclosed to the vendor or any other person either during or after the sale without the consent of the respective purchaser.
7. The auctioneer reserves the right to bid himself or through an agent up to the reserve price for the particular lot.
8. The auctioneer will make no charge to a prospective purchaser for this service and will accept no liability whatsoever for any bid not being made on behalf of the prospective purchaser whether through lack of clarity of instructions or for any other reason whatsoever. Prospective telephone purchasers will not hold Paul Fosh Auctions liable for any loss or claims relating to the telephone system or the interruption or suspension of this service. The prospective purchaser will be advised if the relevant lot has been successfully purchased on his behalf as soon as possible after the auction. Where the lot has been purchased the prospective purchaser will be notified by post and the deposit returned as soon as reasonably possible.
9. Prospective purchasers are advised to telephone the auction department of Paul Fosh Auctions (tel. 01633 254044) between 8.30 a.m. and 10.00 a.m. on the day of the auction to ensure that there are no amendments to the particulars of the sale or conditions relating to the relevant lot or other matters relating to it. The prospective purchaser will be deemed to have knowledge of such amendments and will buy subject to them in any event. If the prospective purchaser does not telephone and such amendments have been made, the auctioneer may in his absolute discretion decide not to bid for the relevant lot on the prospective purchasers behalf or refuse to accept bids by or on behalf or refuse to accept bids by or on behalf of prospective purchasers and the auctioneer will not be responsible for any loss, costs or damages incurred by the prospective purchaser a result thereof.
10. Should the prospective purchaser wish to bid at the auction in person or through an agent, such intention must be conveyed in writing to the auctioneer in person prior to the lot being offered for sale. In this case the auctioneer will not make any bids on behalf of the prospective purchasers.
11. Prospective purchasers are advised in respect of telephone bids that should they become disconnected during bidding or are unobtainable. Paul Fosh Auctions will not be held responsible or liable for any loss suffered in respect thereof.
